

Romanticism Unit Test Study Guide

You will need to know and be able to discuss/explain the following:

- the five characteristics of Romanticism
- the two “waves” of Romanticism (who’s in the first and who’s in the second)
- basic biographical details about each poet and how each of their nicknames helps us to understand something about them
- you should know the names of each of the nine poems we read and who wrote them
- you should be able to recall the basic details of each poem (for example, if I were to question you about which poet composed a poem in solitude in which he remembers his youth and speaks to his infant, you should know it’s “Frost At Midnight” by Samuel Taylor Coleridge.
